THE ILLINOIS Industrial University.

LOCATION.

The University has a beautiful and healthful situation on the high grounds between the cities of Champaign and Urbana, and within the corporate limits of the latter. It is one hundred and twenty-eight miles south from Chicago, at the junction of the Illinois Central, and Indiana, Bloomington and Western, and the Wabash railways. The County is a region of beautiful rolling prairies, with large belts of timber along the streams, and one of the richest farming districts in the state.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

The domain occupied by the University and its several departments, embraces about 623 acres, including stock farm, experimental farm, orchards, nurseries, forest plantations, arboretum, ornamental grounds and military parade ground.

The University buildings, fifteen in number, include a grand Main Building, a spacious Mechanical Building and Drill Hall, a large Chemical Laboratory, a Veterinary Hall, a small Astronomical Observatory, two Dormitories, three dwellings, two large barns and a green-house.

ORGANIZATION OF THE UNIVERSITY.

COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS.

The Institution is a University in the American sense, though differing designedly in the character of some of its colleges from the older institutions of this country. It embraces four Colleges, which are subdivided into Schools. A School is understood to embrace the course of instruction needful for some one profession or vocation. Schools that are cognate in character and studies, are grouped in the same college. The following are the Colleges and Schools:

I. COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE.

II. COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING.

School of Mechanical Engineering. School of Architecture.
School of Civil and Mining Engineering.

III. COLLEGE OF NATURAL SCIENCE.

School of Chemistry. School of Natural History.

IV. COLLEGE OF LITERATURE AND SCIENCE.

School of English and Modern Languages.
School of Ancient Languages.

V. ADDITIONAL SCHOOLS.

School of Military Science. School of Art and Design.

Vocal and Instrumental Music and Elocution are also taught, but not as parts of the regular course.

The whole number matriculated as students since the opening is 1,949. The number graduated from the several Colleges, including the class of 1884, is 409. In 1871 the University was opened for lady students, on the same terms as to gentlemen. In 1874 a Fine Art Gallery was established. In 1876 the University received from the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia, three diplomas and a medal. In 1877 its exhibit at the Paris International Exposition gained a diploma and the gold medal. The exhibit now at New Orleans is pronounced superior to that of any other collegiate institution.

Tuition free; Matriculation fee, $10, paid but once; Incidentals, per term $7.50; Board, in clubs, $2 to $2.50 a week; in families, $4 to $5.
